

K-Love serves my community with excellent Christian broadcasting. The community would lose a source of positive and needed messages if displaced by some other station. We need this type of radio station. There is no other suitable station here to provide the same Christian message. We need more good stations and less on air junk.